WHY IS MINDFULNESS HITTING THE MAINSTREAM?

*Anyone can do it. It helps.
It's evidence-based.
It's a way of living.
It offers hope for the future.*

Anyone can do it.

It's a practice and a way of living. It cultivates universal human qualities, and so it doesn't conflict with anyone's religion, beliefs, or lifestyle.

It helps.

It has proven results for our health, happiness, work, and relationships. It benefits our families, organizations, schools, and communities.

It's evidence-based.

Its positive effects for individuals, institutions, and society are documented by both science and experience.

It's a way of living.

It's also about bringing awareness, caring, and joy to everything we do. Whatever life we choose, mindfulness enhances it.

It offers hope for the future.

When people live mindfully we develop calm, clarity, and effectiveness as we deal with the increasing complexity and uncertainty of today's world.

GUIDELINES

General Guidelines for Preparing Your Ad

To avoid production charges, your digital artwork dimensions must conform to our ad sizes, standards, and specifications.

Before preparing your ad, ensure that all graphic elements are in CMYK, grayscale, or bitmap mode. Photographic images should be 300 dpi (dots per inch) or greater. Line art should be 1200 dpi. Do not use images downloaded from the Internet as these often have a resolution of 72 dpi or 100 dpi, which isn't appropriate for print. Use CMYK mode (not RGB) for color ads.

We accept PDF/X-1a and TIFF. When creating a PDF/X-1a or TIFF, make sure all fonts are embedded, outlined, or flattened and all images are linked. If you are submitting a full-page ad make sure you include a 0.125" bleed on all sides.

Ads submitted that do not conform to our sizes, specifications, and requirements will incur charges to fix the file. These will be billed at the rate of $80/hour, in 15-minute increments. Charges will appear on your invoice.

Guidelines for Specific Applications

INDESIGN & QUARKXPRESS

Create a PDF/X-1a file. PDF/X-1a files must be distilled with Acrobat Distiller or exported from InDesign. Please call if you plan to export a PDF from Quark without using Acrobat Distiller.

ILLUSTRATOR

Save the file as a PDF/X-1a. You can convert the type to outlines before creating a PDF/X-1a. If you choose not to convert the type to outlines, the fonts will be embedded as part of the PDF/X-1a process. Either option is acceptable.

PHOTOSHOP

Save the file as a PDF/X-1a or as a flattened TIFF. Always construct your ad at 300 dpi. To preserve text quality, do not resize your ad after the layers have been flattened. Also, do not resize the text layer if you render the type before flattening the layers. Rendering type changes fonts from vectors to pixels. Pixel-based fonts may look clear on your screen when you resize them, but they can appear blurry when printed.

MICROSOFT WORD AND PUBLISHER

We do not accept files, including PDFs, created in Word or Publisher. They are not suitable for professional magazine printing.

UPLOADING YOUR AD

To upload artwork please visit <http://aduploads.sendmyad.com> and follow instructions.

COPY AND CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS

1. All insertion orders are accepted subject to provisions of the current rate card. The publisher will not be bound by any conditions, printed or otherwise, appearing on contracts, orders, or copy instructions that conflict with set policies.
2. Orders are due on or before the ad reservation deadline. Orders must specifically state issues and space to be used. All verbal instructions regarding contracts, insertions, or changes of any kind are to be confirmed in writing by the advertiser.
3. A signed contract or acknowledgment is required to confirm ad reservation.
4. Cancellations or changes in orders will not be accepted after advertising space closing date and none may be considered executed unless acknowledged by the publisher. Orders for back covers and specified positions are noncancellable after 60 days prior to the closing date of issue.
5. Orders that contain incorrect rates or conditions will be inserted and charged for at regular schedule of rates. Such errors will be regarded only as clerical.
6. We reserve the right to reject advertisements which, based on our judgment, are not consistent with our publication's objectives, standards, and editorial convictions, as well as ads that in our estimation will not achieve the advertiser's aims. Because Mindful endeavors to offer a view and voice for the application of secular mindfulness practices, from time to time we may suggest changes to copy and/or imagery in keeping with this goal.
7. Copy resembling editorial will be labeled "Advertisement" by Mindful at its discretion.
8. All orders are accepted subject to fires, strikes, accidents, or other occurrences beyond publisher's control, which prevent publisher from partially or completely producing, publishing, or distributing Mindful. Publisher shall not be liable for any costs or damages if for any reason the advertisement is not published.
9. Advertisers and their agencies have dual liability to Mindful for payment of advertising charges. That is, the agency is responsible for the client, and vice versa. Statements on agency (or advertiser) insertion orders or contracts negating dual liability are superseded by this required condition (by Mindful) of dual liability.
10. In consideration of the acceptance of the advertisement, the advertiser and/or agency assumes liability for any and all claims that may arise as a result of advertisements printed and will protect the publisher against any claims arising therefrom.
11. Any and all negotiated advertiser discounts are only applicable to and available during the period in which they are earned. Rebates resulting from any and all earned advertiser discount adjustments must be used within six months after the end of the period in which they were earned. Unused rebates will expire six months after the end of the period in which they were earned.

MINDFUL ADVERTISING GUIDELINES

These Guidelines, primarily adopted in accordance with the Guidelines of the American Society of Magazine Editors (ASME), set forth standards that govern Mindful's relationship with its advertising partners and the relationship between editorial and advertising content. The overriding consideration is that Mindful must maintain its editorial integrity and independence, and the trust of its readers. We believe that establishing, publicly displaying, and adhering to these Guidelines is important to protect the trust and transparency that should exist between a publication, its readers, and its advertisers.

We also believe that to serve its mission, the Mindful brand needs to be sensitive to presenting a secular approach to mindfulness, free of religious doctrine, dogma, imagery, or rituals. Our main mission is to encourage practices that develop skills and innate abilities or endowments. In our view, people are innately mindful, aware, kind, and compassionate. We believe that secular mindfulness practices can draw that out, and make insights into habits.

Finally, we recognize that no set of Guidelines can address every situation or issue that may arise in the course of doing business, especially given the pace of change within the media industry. Accordingly, we anticipate that these guidelines will be revisited and updated from time to time. In particular, we will remain teachable and open to suggestions, criticism, and correction.

GENERAL ADVERTISING GUIDELINES

The Guidelines in the following section apply to all advertisements and sponsor content served by or appearing in the print publications of Mindful and its digital properties, including mindful.org and the Mindful e-newsletter, and all related social media, mobile, and app extensions.

- Mindful will not allow any relationship with an advertiser to compromise Mindful's editorial integrity.
- All advertising content must be clearly distinguishable from editorial content. To that end, Mindful will label an advertisement with the word "Advertisement" when, in its opinion, this is necessary to make clear the distinction between editorial material and advertising.
- While the content of advertising does not necessarily reflect the views of Mindful or its editors, if it comes to the attention of Mindful that an ad, in our opinion, contains demonstrably false or unlawful content, Mindful will refuse or remove the ad in whole or in part.
- Mindful may exercise its discretion to refuse or remove any advertising that is inconsistent with or may tend to bring disparagement, harm to reputation, or other damage to Mindful's brand.
- Mindful will not trade editorial coverage for advertising and will alert advertisers that story plans communicated via an editorial calendar are never a guarantee that a specific topic, person, or product will appear in the magazine. Advertisements will not be integrated into editorial content.
- Mindful will make every effort to avoid advertising adjacencies that could lead a reader to believe that the product advertised is endorsed by or promoted by the surrounding editorial copy. Additionally, editorial coverage of a person or product will never be positioned adjacent to advertising related to the same person or product.

- Mindful will not submit editorial content to advertisers for approval.
- Mindful will disclose to readers any e-commerce partnerships as such with advertisers.

ADVERTISING THAT WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED

Although Mindful will evaluate whether to work with advertisers on a case-by-case basis, some examples of advertising Mindful will not accept are the following:

- Advertising that contains religious programs, imagery, pictures of teachers in robes, or references to religious teachings.
- Ads for programs taught by teachers with titles conferred by religious organizations. Mindfulness programs taught by people with religious backgrounds are acceptable, so long as the content of the program is clearly secular.
- Ads for programs with religious doctrinal content or ritual.
- Religious books by religious teachers. Books by religious teachers that are explicitly secular are acceptable, provided the cover imagery is non-religious. The fact that the book may contain the odd reference to religious ideas does not disqualify, so long as in the main it is secular in tone.
- Religious programs at religious centers. Programs at religious-oriented centers are acceptable, so long as they are clearly secular in content and do not contain religious rituals.
- Religious products. If a non-religious product ad (jewelry, for example) contains a modest amount of religious imagery, that's acceptable. But if an alternative product line is available, we would strongly encourage the non-religious products be featured instead in the ad.

- Advertising that Mindful believes, in its opinion, makes questionable claims.
- Advertising that Mindful believes, in its opinion, is indecent, vulgar, suggestive, profane, inflammatory, or offensive.
- Advertising for illegal products or services, including drugs, illegal substances, or any related products or services.
- Advertising that Mindful believes will undermine the intellectual integrity, authority, and character of its mission and brand.

EXCEPTIONS WITHIN THE MARKETPLACE SECTION OF THE MAGAZINE

The Marketplace section, given the size of the ads and nature of the section, will accept religious-affiliated ads. For examples, logos of practice centers with religious imagery or products such as the Metta prayer bracelet, are acceptable in Marketplace.

SUBJECT TO THE SOLE DISCRETION OF THE PUBLISHER, EDITOR, AND GENERAL MANAGER

All determinations of the application of the foregoing standards to particular advertisements or advertisers shall be within the sole discretion of Mindful's publisher, editor, and general manager.

Mindful may remove advertising content at any time if such content is inconsistent with the policies described herein, with or without prior notice to the advertising client and regardless of whether the advertising content has been accepted or displayed within Mindful for any period of time.

SPONSOR CONTENT GUIDELINES

Definition

Sponsor Content (or "native advertising") is content created or commissioned by advertisers in collaboration with Mindful's marketing team. Mindful allows Sponsor Content in two forms: (1) Content produced by the marketing team as commissioned by its advertising partners and (2) Content produced by advertisers.

Sponsor Content should consist of content that the magazine would not normally publish; i.e., it should distinguish itself as something "special" and distinct from editorial pages.

Labeling & Design

As with all advertising, Sponsor Content does not necessarily reflect the views and choices of Mindful's editors. Accordingly, Mindful will prominently display the following disclaimer on all Sponsor Content: 'SPONSOR CONTENT: (name of advertiser)' or 'PAID POST: (name of advertiser).' Mindful will include a disclaimer on all Sponsor Content that notes the non-involvement of Mindful's editorial staff in curating or creating the Content and clarifies that the Content is made possible by a Sponsor, specifically: "This (e-mail, post, content) is sponsored by an advertiser. Mindful editorial staff did not produce it." For sponsor emails, the subject line of the email should read "Sponsored: (sponsor's subject line)."

Mindful may additionally include, in certain areas and platforms, further explanation defining Sponsor Content to Mindful readers. In addition, Mindful will ensure the treatment and design of Advertising and Sponsor Content is clearly differentiated from its editorial content.

Despite the caveat that Sponsor Content does not necessarily reflect the views of Mindful or its editors, Mindful will refuse publication of such content that, in its own judgment, would undermine the intellectual integrity, authority, and character of our enterprise.

As with all advertising, and consistent with the foregoing General Advertising Guidelines, Mindful may reject or remove any Sponsor Content at any time that contains false, deceptive, potentially misleading, or illegal content; is inconsistent with or may tend to bring disparagement, harm to reputation, or other damage to Mindful's brand.

PARTNERSHIP CONTENT

If Mindful is formally a co-convenor or business partner of an event, service, or product, content related to promoting that event, service, or product may be labeled "MINDFUL RECOMMENDS" with the disclaimer:

"As a proud partner of [name of partner or conference], Mindful hopes to further our work of spreading news from the leading edge of the Mindfulness movement. We will always let you know when an email is part of a partnership (like this one is). Thanks for supporting Mindful."

If however Mindful is receiving payment or an in-kind exchange of goods or services for their involvement as merely a sponsor of the event, service, or product, then such content should be labeled "Sponsor Content: (name of advertiser)" or "Paid Post: (name of advertiser)," with the disclaimer "This (e-mail, post, content) is sponsored by an advertiser. Mindful editorial staff did not produce it."

UNDERWRITING SUPPORT

Mindful is published by the Foundation for a Mindful Society, a non-profit dedicated to inspiring, guiding, and connecting anyone who wants to explore mindfulness. In addition to a subscription model and advertising that partly supports the pursuit of our mission, for financial sustainability Mindful also seeks financial support from donors and underwriters.

Underwriters are not provided with any editorial influence over the content they underwrite. Mindful content that is underwritten by an outside party will be labeled in the presentation of that content as "Development of this article was underwritten by (name of underwriter)."
